FAMILY.FOUNDATION.FUTURE

TIMES HAVE CHANGED.

Cultures have evolved. But not for the better. Where the Family Institution is concerned, we have regressed in the name of progress. The foundation for the future of society and human civilisation is compromised and undermined. Yes, we're in a big mess! We see a Sexual Revolution and all its craze. A hook-up culture popularised through social media. Trends around the world ought to worry any father, mother, brother, or sister who loves this little red dot we call home. People think it's not cool to talk about these trends. But what's really not cool is zipping lip and sticking our heads in the sand while the Family—the basic building block of society—is being taken down piece by piece like a Jenga game.

IN SUCH TIMES...

- We, the Church, must put our house in order and return to the authority of the Word. God is the Founder of Marriage and Family. He has set the standard. It's a universal natural law that applies to all humanity. Any individual or institution that tampers with this original design is ultimately challenging God. We must not trivialise the issue. We dare not take the middle ground simply to avoid controversy.
- We, the Church, must learn to reason cogently from a multi-disciplinary and non-religious angle. Only then can we contribute meaningfully to the national conversation and be taken seriously by secular society.
- We, the Church, must pay attention to our young and the mushy middle with strong opinions about public morality. How can we win their hearts? How do we father them? How do we disciple them to be Salt and Light in a world that calls good evil and evil good?
- We, the Church, must love and care for the sexually broken, fellow human beings of intrinsic worth. How do they read us? Are we a community full of grace and truth? A Family whom they can run to and receive help without stigma or shame?

WE HOLD THE KEY to our nation's shalom and future. This generation must show the way righteously and compassionately. Momentum 2014 is designed with this in mind. Come as a family. Come with friends.
