

Memo to All God's Ministers:

9 March 2009

For of those to whom much is given, much is required. And when at some future date the high court of history sits in judgment on each of us, recording whether in our brief span of service we fulfilled our responsibilities to the state, our success or failure, in whatever office we hold, will be measured by the answers to four questions: First, were we truly men of courage... Second, were we truly men of judgment... Third, were we truly men of integrity... Finally, were we truly men of dedication?

John F. Kennedy spoke these famous words way back in 1961. He was echoing Jesus' line in Luke 12:48. It's an important message for leaders of every generation. Given the sorry state our world is in today, will we, the Church, rise up to lead with courage, competence, character, and commitment? Or will we be found wanting on our watch? Daniel 12:3 says: Those who are wise will shine as bright as the sky, and those who lead many to righteousness will shine like the stars forever. May we wise up and leave a righteous legacy in His name!

It goes without saying that the current economic crisis has everything to do with the marketplace. It's a seismic shake-up, the worst in a hundred years. God is obviously exposing evil. I believe He's testing hearts, too. And I am convinced that His ultimate agenda is to transform lives and societies and systems. Change the marketplace and you change the world!

To this end, and in keeping with LoveSingapore's transformation vision in this our 3rd seven-year phase leading up to Singapore's jubilee (2015), we are convening Transformation 09, a two-day equipping conference (May 1-2) with Ed Silvoso as our keynote speaker. Ed is no stranger to many of us. He is a dear friend of LoveSingapore, having been personally involved with us as our primary teacher-equipper during our first phase (1995-2001).

In this conference, besides laying the biblical foundations for marketplace transformation, Ed will be giving us practical handles to put feet to vision. I will be sharing on Transformation, Singapore-style; and launching the Blessing Campaign (May 3-31). There will also be a special bonus session on both evenings where Ed's international team members will showcase God's mighty work of transformation in their respective marketplace sectors.

So, don't miss this strategic, life-transforming conference. We're keeping the conference fees low so that Christians from all walks of life can participate. Group registration by church/organization is preferred. I look forward to hearing from you before 21st April, the closing date. Thank You and may God bless you!
